Mrs Hobbs’ Headlines…

There are a number of events coming up on the calendar, please look for events that may involve your child and lookout for permission forms.

Permission forms must be in the day before an excursion. Forms will not be accepted on the day. Please appreciate that the reason for this is that we can plan effectively eg. How many teachers need to go on the excursion and who is going to cover staff classes for the day and what size bus (if any) is to be used?

Little Athletes Big Success

Edenhope’s Little Athletes performed well to bring home victory at the 2015 Regional Athletics held at Ballarat 21-22nd Feb. It was an amazing weekend for all athletes, each smashing their personal best times in every event they competed in. All the hurdle events were hotly contested with Trinity Hollis and Patrick Duggan collecting first, Danika Hollis & Taffy Adams receiving 3rds in their respective hurdles, with Dash Adams and Adam Hood narrowly missing the placing’s. In the sprints our younger athletes of Sienna Bull, Jackson Bull and Hunter Adams showed they will be tough competition in the future. Picking up 2nd, 6th & 4th placing’s. High jump Imogen Hollis jumped an impressive 1.20m to claim a 2nd and progress to the State finals. The club’s strength showed in the field events with Hunter Adams - 1st, Danika Hollis & Rachel Duggan fighting out positions of 2nd & 3rd in Discus events.

Rachel Duggan & Jacob Duggan breaking PB’s to secure 1st in Shot Put and progress to State Finals. "Out of the 12 Edenhope Athletes that competed on the weekend, 6 have progressed to State Finals in Melbourne at the end of March. It is a wonderful effort by the Athlete’s, coaches and parents to support these children. Giving them the opportunity to experience what city kids and dreaming big can achieve." You never know unless you have a go!
